The wanted military activist [REDACTED] contacted [REDACTED], a Tanzim military activist who is responsible for the perpetration of many terrorist attacks. [illegible] in the Palestinian police notified me that he intended to arrange a suicide bombing attack in which the suicide bomber was Mohamed Hashaika, who expressed his intention to perpetrate the terrorist attack. [REDACTED] agreed to participate in the perpetration of the suicide attack [illegible word]. The two of them made an appointment to meet the next day in order to agree on the details for the perpetration of the terrorist attack. [illegible] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] met and drove together to an apartment in Ein Umm Sharait. There they met with the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika and another young woman, [REDACTED] who was also supposed to carry out a suicide bombing attack. After the two suicide bombers were filmed saying that they were taking responsibility for the attack, [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that the attack was to be carried out on March 17, 2002. [REDACTED] decided that she was not going to take part in the terrorist attack and returned to her city, Nablus.

The Defendant met with a woman who was her friend from school, [REDACTED] was close to the wanted military activist [REDACTED] and sent him young men who were interested in carrying out suicide bombing attacks. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The Defendant gave [REDACTED] her telephone number, which [REDACTED] used to contact the Defendant, after which the two met. Initially, the Defendant answered [REDACTED] saying that she had no time to help him with the activity that [REDACTED] had talked about, which was the smuggling of suicide bombers. Nonetheless, the two of them remained in contact.

On March 20, 2002, [REDACTED] asked the Defendant to bring a suicide bomber into Jerusalem so that he could carry out a suicide bombing attack, and he asked her to do so accompanied by another young woman.

Details of the operation [handwritten]*

On March 21, 2002, the Defendant, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] met with the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika at the al-Khajal Hotel. At that time, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] told Mohamed Hashaika that he would carry out the suicide bombing that day. Mohamed replied that he was prepared to do so. After that, [REDACTED] and Mohamed Hashaika went up to [REDACTED] room in the hotel. There, [REDACTED] put the explosive belt onto the suicide bomber, Mohamed Hashaika. After they both came down from the room, the Defendant, [REDACTED] and the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika drove away. They drove to the house of [REDACTED], where the four of them met [REDACTED] and at the request of [REDACTED] came there. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] instructed the Defendant and the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika that if Israel Defense Forces troops exposed them, the Defendant would have to run away and the terrorist would detonate the explosive belt on his body.

The military activist [REDACTED] worried that the Defendant was afraid to carry out the attack and was therefore dressed in traditional Arab clothing. Accordingly, [REDACTED] called a woman who was an acquaintance of his, [REDACTED], who agreed to participate in carrying out the suicide bombings and transporting suicide bombers and asked her to come to Ramallah.

After that conversation, the Defendant, the suicide bomber, and their comrades went to the Abu Rih Hospital in Ramallah.

After an additional telephone call, [REDACTED] also arrived and met with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] near the hospital. Nearby, a small blue car was parked, in which the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika was sitting, dressed in the explosive belt. With him were [REDACTED] who was driving the car, and the Defendant. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that there was a terrorist in the car who was on his way to carry out a suicide attack, along with another woman.

[REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] to go with the suicide bomber and the Defendant to carry out the terrorist attack because [REDACTED] was wearing pants and her head was bare and uncovered. [REDACTED] got into the car and sat in the back seat next to the suicide bomber. The Defendant sat in the front seat next to the driver of the car, [REDACTED]. The Defendant gave the suicide bomber a Koran. Approximately 200 meters before the Qalandiya checkpoint, the driver, [REDACTED] stopped the car. He asked the suicide bomber for a kiss, and the Defendant, accompanied by the suicide bomber and [REDACTED] got out of the car. [...]

The Defendant flagged down a taxi and asked the driver to transport them and to circumvent the a-Ram checkpoint, and she paid the taxi driver NIS 50 for doing so. The Defendant also bought flowers, which she gave to the suicide bomber. The Defendant, the suicide bomber, and [REDACTED] passed the a-Ram checkpoint on foot, circumventing the examination by the Israel Defense Forces troops. After that, the three of them got into another taxi, and the Defendant asked the taxi driver to take them to Jaffa Road in Jerusalem because they wanted to celebrate Mother's Day and they did not have Israeli identity documents; [she asked him] to take them on roads where there were no Israel Defense Forces checkpoints. The Defendant, [REDACTED], and the suicide bomber walked along Jaffa Road, in order to locate a venue crowded with people where the suicide bomber would blow himself up and cause the death of many civilians. While they were walking, [REDACTED] instructed the Defendant [REDACTED]

The Defendant noticed that there were many people in the street and consulted with [REDACTED] as to whether this was an effective place to carry out the suicide bombing in order to cause the deaths of many civilians as possible. [REDACTED] answered [REDACTED]. The Defendant agreed with [REDACTED] and set the suicide bomber to carry out the planned attack. The suicide bomber asked the Defendant and [REDACTED], and he went to detonate the explosive belt on his body with the objective of causing the deaths of many civilians. The Defendant and [REDACTED] left the scene, and a few minutes later at about 4:20 p.m. the suicide bomber detonated the explosive belt on his body on King George Street in Jerusalem.

As a result of the explosion, three people were killed and 81 others were injured. In addition, great damage was caused to property.

The Defendant heard the sound of the explosion which was caused by the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika when he detonated the explosive belt on his body. The Defendant went back to Ramallah, where she was contacted by the man who had recruited her, [REDACTED], and she updated him about what had happened, telling him that the suicide bomber had arrived in Jerusalem and had detonated the explosive belt on his body. [REDACTED] who arrived in Ramallah later, updated [REDACTED], as to what they had done, and because [REDACTED] had gotten separated from the Defendant, she asked him what had happened to her. [REDACTED] informed her that the Defendant had reached her home sometime ago.

The Defendant, by her actions as described above, intentionally caused the death of Zipporah Shemesh of blessed memory, who was killed as a result of the suicide bomber Mohamed Hashaika blowing himself up on King George Street. Zipporah Shemesh of blessed memory was pregnant when she died.
